SHARIAH PROFESSIONALS PROGRAMME for Islamic Capital Market

Secure an Edge as ICM Professionals in shariah advisory

Shariah Professionals Programme for Islamic Capital Market

The Shariah Professionals Programme for Islamic Capital Market is one of the initiatives by the Securities Commission Malaysia (SC) to provide continuous professional development in the area of Shariah Advisory relating to the Islamic Capital Market (ICM). The programme, is funded by the Capital Market Development Fund (CMDf) and organised by the Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC). The programme is exclusively developed with an objective to define key issues and challenges available in the market. It also aims to equip the ICM practitioners in becoming more innovative and hands-on in addressing the issues.

Programme Objective

By the end of the programme, participants will be able to integrate the theoretical and practical aspects of the Islamic capital industry knowledge.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- describe the Shariah principles governing the Islamic capital market
- distinguish among various ICM products and issues in light of complex legal relationships, as well as conduct due diligence processes;
- assess the significance and essentials of accounting, auditing, taxation and sound regulation in promoting Islamic markets;
- draw attention to current Shariah issues concerning market activities and trading of products and instruments;
- evaluate the Islamic equity and sukuk as alternative means of financing and investment to conventional products; and
- analyse crucial elements of the Islamic market to gear up for future challenges.

Programme Modules

The Shariah Professionals Programme for Islamic Capital Market will be offered on a modular basis, with the duration of each module ranging from 1 to 2 days. Participants are allowed to enrol for any module without any prerequisite, subject to the availability of the module. The programme will be conducted during weekends.

The modules offered are as follows:

Modules	Topics
Module 1	Fundamentals of Shariah Rulings
Module 2	Regulatory Requirements and Legal Documentation in ICM
Module 3	Accounting, Auditing and Taxation in ICM
Module 4	Islamic Equity Market
Module 4A	Islamic Derivatives
Module 5	The Sukuk Market

Who can apply?

You can apply for the programme if you:

- ✓ Possess a degree in Shariah or a relevant study background
- ✓ Have work experience in related fields
- ✓ Are a Shariah advisor for a financial institution
- ✓ Academicians
- ✓ Legal practitioners in Islamic Finance
- ✓ Accounting practitioners in Islamic Finance
- ✓ A new ICM entrant

Why you should be part of this programme?

- Shariah Professionals Programme for Islamic Capital Market will assist you in gaining holistic knowledge and understanding of the ICM from a local and global perspective.
- The knowledge acquisition involves experiential learning comprising case studies, analysis, discussions and video presentations.
- Given the exposure on the best practices and guidelines that govern ICM in Malaysia, participants will be more competent and innovative in addressing ICM issues after completing the programme.
- The trainers are subject matter experts in ICM, Islamic finance practitioners, Shariah advisors and/or academicians.
